

Chinmaya Mission San Diego

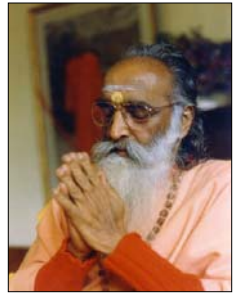

presents

Bhajan Sandhya

by

Swami Prakashananda

Acharya, Chinmaya Mission Trinidad & Tobago

This is a special fund-raising event for Chinmaya Jyoti, the permanent abode of Chinmaya Mission San Diego.

Swami Prakashanandaji met Swami Chinmayanandaji while studying at the University in Toronto. With the permission of his Guru he went to India where he spent six years studying Vedanta and Sanskrit under the guidance of Swami Chidanandaji, Swami Tejomayanandaji and under Swami Chinmayanandaji himself. He holds a B.A double major in Political Science and Philosophy from York University, Toronto and an Law Degree (LL.B) from Benares Hindu University. In 1997, as Br. Prem Chaitanya he returned to Trinidad in order to more effectively work for the community and serve his Guru.

Swamiji has lectured in India, Nepal, U.K., Canada, Trinidad, Guyana, Grenada, Barbados and the United States. He was initiated into sannyasa on March 8, 2005. At present he is the resident Acharya of Chinmaya Mission Trinidad and Tobago.

Swamiji is well-known for his musical renderings of bhajans and the Sritamacaritamanasa by Goswami Tulasidasji.
