Sriramacaritamanasa

Discourses on the Kishkinda kanda

by

Swami Prakashananda

Acharya, Chinmaya Mission Trinidad, Tobago

Swami Prakashanandaji met Swami Chinmayanandaji while studying at the University in Toronto. With the permission of his Guru he went to India where he spent six years studying Vedanta and Sanskrit under the guidance of Swami Chidanandaji, Swami Tejomayanandaji and under Swami Chinmayanandaji himself. He holds a B.A double major in Political Science and Philosophy from York University, Toronto and an Law Degree (LL.B) from Benares Hindu University. In 1997, as Br. Prem Chaitanya he returned to Trinidad in order to more effectively work for the community and serve his Guru.

Swamiji has lectured in India, Nepal, U.K., Canada, Trinidad, Guyana, Grenada, Barbados and the United States. He was initiated into sannyasa on March 8, 2005. At present he is the resident Acharya of Chinmaya Mission Trinidad and Tobago.

This will be the third visit by Swamiji to San Diego. He was one of the Acharya-s at both the family camps conducted by Chinmaya Mission San Diego at Temecula (2002 & 2003).

Swamiji will cover the Kishkindakanda of the Sriramacaritamanasa by Goswami Tulasidasji during these talks sprinkled with the melodious rendering of the Ramayana.
